

AMENDMENTS TO THE SPECIFICATION:

Please amend paragraph [0127], beginning at line 14 of page 21 as follows:

In each of the trading cards 20c and 20d, respective magnitudes of the offensive force, defensive force, physical power, and ~~maximum~~ magical power, which are capacity values of character data, and the number of games are represented by patterns simulating scales. The values indicated by the scales of the trading card 20d are greater than those in the trading card 20c. The special capabilities of new character data printed in the trading card 20d include magic A and C in addition to swordplay A and B which are special capabilities of original character data printed in the trading card 20c. This enables the player owning the trading card to grasp details of the character data stored in the trading card and changes thereof without depending on gaming machines.
